

---

---

Monarchies around the world

---

Commonwealth realm Monarchy Emirate Sultanate

---

Task: What is a monarchy?

Write down three different responses to the inquiry question, 'What is a monarchy?', using:

- 10 - 15 words
  - 30 - 50 words
  - 75 - 100 words
-

---

See - Think - Wonder

- Using the map consider the following questions with their partner:
    - What do you think about the countries that are governed by a monarchy?
    - What does it make you wonder?
-

Commonwealth realm Monarchy Emirate Sultanate

---

Discuss

- Research the following terms used on the map: commonwealth, emirate, sultanate.
  - How do you think having a monarchy would affect the identity of a country?
  - Where in the world do you see no monarchies? Why might this be the case?
-

Should we abolish the monarchy?

There is a genuine interest in the lives of the monarch and their family

Lots of tourists come here to see the royal family and they spend lots of money

Money spent on the royal family could be used to help poor people

Some members of the royal family don't seem to do a lot

The monarchy is an important tradition in the UK and Japan

The monarchy has become more popular in recent years

Monarchs may have connection to a religion which might not represent a the nation

Having a royal family creates a system where some people are seen as better than others

The monarch acts as a symbol of national unity at difficult times

The monarch is not elected-we are meant to live in a democracy

The monarch is central to our heritage and traditions

Monarchy divides society into the 'haves' and 'have nots'

